Chamber of Commerce Supports Education

The recent Wall Chamber of Commerce Business After Hours networking event held at the offices of Trinity Financial Sports & Entertainment Management Co., Atlantic Avenue, Wall, was attended by roughly 40 people, including former NY Giant Keith Elias, a member of the Trinity Financial Corporate Advisory Board. During the meeting, Peter Grandich, founding member of Trinity Financial, presented a check for $1000 to Lynn Chapin of Smith Computer Consulting, chair of the Chamber Scholarship Committee, to fund the chamber's first 2008 scholarship. Those who attended the meeting include Mr. Grandich [from left], Mr. Elias, Ms. Chapin, Wall Committeewoman Mary Burne and Wall Mayor Robert D. Peters.
