

The “Wall Street Whiz Kid” Speaks

PETER GRANDICH

Speaker • Author • Radio & TV Personality

MOTIVATOR • SPEAKER

This spirited and uplifting presentation will motivate you for years to come!

Recognized for his innovative seminars and presentations, Peter Grandich believes that personal attitudes have great impact on an organization’s success. His presentation teaches techniques for maintaining a positive attitude in a competitive and changing marketplace.

Peter weaves his years on Wall Street and his personal experiences with the rise and fall of “stardom” with some old-fashioned humor and common-sense advice for a fun and uplifting presentation.

Eight-time “Best Speaker” Winner

Peter Grandich entered Wall Street in 1984 with no formal education or training and within three years was dubbed “The Wall Street Whiz Kid” for accurately predicting the 1987 “Black Monday” stock market crash. He has since gained international notoriety, being interviewed hundreds of times on TV, radio, magazines, and newspapers, and speaking at conferences worldwide.

In 1995, Peter reached what many would refer to as “The American Dream,” only to witness that dream become a living nightmare of panic attacks and depression. Those experiences help to build a powerful and motivational message, which Peter shares in his radio program “God, Money & You: Confessions of a Wall Street Whiz Kid,” as well as through his motivational speeches and seminars.

President and founder of Trinity Financial, Sports & Entertainment Management, LLC, Peter is a Catholic lay-evangelist for The Good News Ministries. He is also a long-standing member of The New York Society of Security Analysts and The Society of Quantitative Analysts. Married for over 20 years, Peter lives in New Jersey with his wife and daughter.

Trinity Financial

Sports & Entertainment Management Co., LLC
Registered Investment Advisors

Commonly Requested Topics

- Maintaining a Positive Attitude in Today’s Changing Marketplace
- God, Money & You: Confessions of a Wall Street Whiz Kid
- Why Traditional Financial Planning Doesn’t Work... And What Does!
- Customized speeches for your unique audience

Call 732-642-3992

“You had everyone’s attention from start to finish.”

“Your refreshing climate and no-nonsense approach to investing gave me new hope.”

“Your inspirational speech touched me deeply. I left feeling hopeful about many things. Thank you.”

“You are an entertaining and motivational speaker.”

“I only wish that everyone important in our lives could have been there to experience the wisdom shared.”

“The combination of humor, financial insight, and faith made for an enjoyable and educational seminar.”

For more information call 732-642-3992 or email PGrandich@TrinityFSEM.com